

Hanson Riverside County Park: Located off of Hwy 35 between West Columbia and Sweeny, this park gives the feeling of a wilderness park but is centrally located. Above – A volleyball area is offered here, as well as horseshoe pits and the playground shown. Below – The Hanson Pavilion accommodates 100 visitors.

Hanson Riverside County Park: Above – River access provides fishing opportunities as well as a tranquil view of the historic San Bernard River. Below – Walking trails wind through heavily wooded areas, perfect for bird watchers or people wishing to re-connect with nature.

